

He who finds success in business pushes his business.

The Paducah Sun

WEEKLY EDITION.

VOLUME VII—NUMBER 26

PADUCAH, KY., THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 27, 1901

$1 A YEAR

THE WEATHER.

The government report is for continued warm weather, with local rains.

FIRE THE TEACHERS.

QUITE A SENSATION AT FULTON OVER SCHOOL BOARD'S ACTION.

The School Board at Fulton, Ky., created quite a sensation Monday night by declaring the places Misses Johnnie and Mollie Cayce were elected to teach in Carr Institute vacant. The reason was that the young ladies had been trying to get positions as teachers elsewhere, after they were elected there, and it was reported had said they wouldn't teach in Fulton if they could help it. They were examined here for teacher's certificates, and it is understood applied for places, but did not get any.

Miss Emma Lee Dupree, of Jackson, was elected to fill one of the vacancies but the other one will not be filled for two weeks.

The Fulton Leader states that since the School Board adopted its restrictions relative to dancing, there has been considerable trouble with the teachers.

REWARD DOUBLED

GOVERNOR OFFERS $500 FOR HUGH LUCAS' SLAYERS.

Frankfort, June 26.—Governor Beckham today doubled the reward offered for the arrest of the murderers of Hugh Lucas, of Pymouth, Ky., who was killed near Hickman several weeks ago while performing his duties as a flagman on the Illinois Central. The reward is now $500. For several days detectives were on the trail of the murderers, and it was at last decided he was killed by the brother or brothers of a young lady in Tennessee. It was reported at the time that the murderer had gone east.

POLICE COURT.

THE BEASLEY RAPE CASE IS NOT YET FINISHED.

The Balger-Beasley rape case consumed the greater part of the day in the police court. New witnesses were introduced, but as the attorneys on both sides had more witnesses and the case was continued until three o'clock this afternoon.

Clarence Gaines was fined $10 and costs for a breach of the peace.

There were two cases against James Eaker, both for breaches of ordinance, by allowing mules to run at large. One was dismissed and the other continued until tomorrow.

Maggie Hagland got a fine of $10 and costs for a breach of ordinance.

The case against M. G. Milan and R. C. Thompson, breach of ordinance, was continued until tomorrow.

The case against J. R. Brown, for malicious cutting, will be called this afternoon.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the case against J. R. Brown for malicious cutting was dismissed and the Beasley case was continued until tomorrow morning.

TWENTY LOST.

DISASTER OFF CAPE BALLARD—ESCAPE OF FIVE HUNDRED.

St. John's, New Foundland, June 26.—The steamer Lusitania was wrecked off Cape Ballard, and of the five hundred passengers aboard, twenty are reported lost. They were in the lifeboat when it foundered. The others were all saved.

GRAVEL CONTRACTS.

MAYOR LANG DOES NOT THINK ONE WILL BE LET AT PRESENT.

Yesterday afternoon there were five bids opened for furnishing gravel to the city. The lowest was 60 cents a yard, but it is claimed that a proviso modifies it to such an extent that it could be anything from 60 cents to a dollar and a half.

City Engineer Wilcox stated that none of the bids conform to the advertisement, and Mayor Lang said that he did not think the contract would be let at all. The matter was last night referred to the street committee.

MEET TOMORROW.

COMMITTEES WILL PROBABLY HAVE A CONFERENCE THEN.

Chairman Redolph, of the council committee appointed last night to meet with the street car company officials, with a view to settling the differences of the company and the city, will probably hold a meeting tomorrow some time.

Friday July 5, Paducah day, at Cairo mid-summer carnival, 11 cents trip.

TRIBUTE PAID

Board of Magistrates Meet and Pass Resolutions of Respect.

JUDGE YOUNG PRESIDED

The Chair of the County Judge Will be Draped in Mourning for Thirty Days.

GOVERNOR TO APPOINT A NEW JUDGE

There was a meeting of the fiscal court, or board of magistrates, this morning at 9 o'clock at the court house. Justice Young, the nearest magistrate, and acting county judge, was called to the chair, and a committee composed of Justices Bryan, Barber and Shemwell was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of County Judge Tully.

Justice R. J. Barber made some appropriate remarks in the meantime, paying quite a pretty tribute to the deceased.

The following resolutions were then adopted:

Whereas, the Hon. J. C. Tully has been called from life, and has been ruled by the highest of all courts to lay down his life's burdens, and to report to receive his reward in the world to come. And whereas by his death the office of county judge is vacant, which office of responsibility and trust he so ably filled.

Now therefore be it resolved by the board of magistrates of McCracken county, that in the death of the Hon. J. C. Tully the community has lost a worthy and upright citizen, the county has lost an able, fearless and conservative public official, and his family has lost an indulgent and loving husband and father, and while to those who have been left his going is an inestimable loss, yet by the going he has gained that to which he was so much entitled—eternal rest.

Resolved further, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the county court records, that the same be published in the papers of Paducah and a copy of same be sent to his wife.

Signed: R. J. BARBER, Chairman, L. B. SHERWELL, W. N. BRYAN.

It was ordered that the chair of county judge be draped in mourning for thirty days. The court then adjourned to attend the funeral this afternoon in a body.

Governor Beckham has not yet appointed a successor to Judge Tully. There are two applicants: "Squire" J. M. Ewell and Mr. Wynne Tully. Mr. Charles Emery says he is not an applicant and would not accept the place.

There is no doubt as to who makes the appointment. The following is a copy of the law, approved on February 10, 1894:

No. 19. The following officers shall have commissions issued to them by the governor, that is to say: Secretary of state, register of the land office, auditor of public accounts, treasurer, commissioner of agriculture, labor and statistics, superintendent of public instruction, judges of court of appeals, clerk of the court of appeals, judges of the circuit courts, county judges, police judges, railroad commissioners, commonwealth's attorneys, justices of the peace, notaries public, and all officers of the militia of rank and grade higher than and including the rank and grade of captain. Should a vacancy occur in any of the said offices, by reason of death or resignation, or removal or any other cause, or should a like vacancy occur in any other office where there is no provision of law for filling same, such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of the governor, subject to the provisions of the constitution applicable thereto.

July 4 with a superb display of fireworks on the levee front, and July 5 with a grand flower parade will be made special day at Cairo's mid-summer carnival July 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6. $1 round trip on July 4 and 5, $1.50 other days.

DIED AT DANVILLE.

Mrs. Mary Newhouse, Mother of Mrs. Lon Kell, died a day or two ago at Danville, Tenn., and was buried Monday. She was about 60 years old, and Mr. and Mrs. Kell were at her bedside. The report in some of the papers that Capt. Kell had shot his wife was without foundation.

Ten big shows on public streets, big minstrel, high class vaudeville, band concerts, streets of all nations with Sapho, the beautiful, and hundreds of minor attractions will be on the streets of Cairo, Ill., from July 1 to 6, inclusively, and pandemonium will reign supreme.

MANY KILLED

A Flyer on the Wabash Wrecked in Indiana Last Night.

WENT THROUGH TRESTLE

Sixteen Emigrants Were Killed by the Accident to the Train and Many Passengers Hurt.

THE MISHAP WEST OF PERU

Peru, Ind., June 26.—A west bound Wabash flyer was wrecked sixteen miles west of here at midnight.

The train was going at terrible speed when it crashed through a trestle and sixteen Italian emigrants were sent into eternity.

Of the fifty passengers many were injured, and were prominent people. There was great confusion and excitement as a result of the wreck and at present it cannot be definitely determined how great the mortality will be.

It is not known how the train came to go through the trestle.

LIVE BIRDS.

MEMBERS OF THE GUN CLUB PREPARING FOR A SHOOT.

There will be another live bird shoot Friday afternoon at La Bella park. There will be about 15 entries and the shooting will be hotly contested. The club is now in fine shape and the shooters have had much practice.

Some excellent shooting is expected. The money has been divided into the following per cents of the entire receipts: First prize, 60 per cent; second, 30 per cent, and third 10 per cent. The Gun club has secured 300 birds for the shoot and it will be one of the biggest of the season.

WAS BLOODSHED.

TWENTY POLICEMEN INJURED IN A SET-TO WITH STRIKERS.

Rochester, N. Y., June 26.—Twenty policemen and eleven strikers were seriously injured this morning in an encounter in the streets.

WAITING FOR NEW

APPOINTMENT.

Major George Saunders is a United States deputy marshal no more. His term expired with that of Marshal James and until Mr. James gets his bondsmen and again is sworn into office Major Saunders will make no arrests. Since his appointment as a deputy marshal Major Saunders has made one of the best in the state, and will continue to live up to his former record.

July 4 and 5 will be two big days and hot nights at Cairo mid-summer carnival. Come and have some fun.

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, DETROIT, MICH., JULY 7 TO 12.

For the above occasion the Illinois Central railroad will sell on July 6, 7 and 8 tickets to Detroit and return with final return limit to July 15 at one fare plus $2 for the round trip.

Upon payment of 50 cents and surrender of ticket to the joint agent at Detroit a further extension to Sept. 1 will be given.

FURNACE MEN COMING.

Mr. S. Frank Eagles, of Milwaukee, one of the new owners of the Paducah Iron Furnace, will arrive in the city tomorrow.

$200,000 LOSS

Six Blocks in Mayfield Destroyed by Fire This Morning at 12:30 O'Clock.

Four Hundred Hogheads of Tobacco, Seven Rehandling Houses and Thirty-two Dwellings Burned—Blaze Could Not be Controlled.

The most destructive fire in the history of Mayfield occurred this morning about 12:30 o'clock. Seven tobacco re-handling houses, thirty-two dwellings and several smaller buildings were burned, entailing a loss of from $150,000 to $200,000. Many people are rendered homeless, and a large part of the town is in ashes.

The blaze originated in H. F. Keys' hoghead factory, and spread rapidly on account of the wind. It got beyond control in a short time, and soon consumed everything in its path. The fire could be seen for miles, many citizens of Paducah being out on their house-tops watching the light.

The course of the conflagration was north, east and south.

Ligon and Allen's tobacco shed was burned, with 400 hogheads of tobacco, valued at about $75,000. There was about $10,000 insurance on the tobacco.

Six other tobacco sheds were burned, with about 200 hogheads of tobacco, and most of the other property was frame dwellings. The sheds belonged to Ligon Brothers, Usher Brothers, Gardner and Keys and J. A. Wright.

In area the fire extended over six blocks. The Illinois Central property was in imminent danger for quite a while, but was saved.

There was the greatest excitement in the little town, and today there has been much suffering from lack of homes and work. The loss will perhaps reach $200,000, but the amount of insurance cannot be estimated.

Most of the insurance on tobacco

REVIVAL NEAR

COL. SCOTT THINKS GRAND RIVERS HAS A BRIGHT

Future—Over 100 Men Will be Put to Work Next Monday—Forty Now Working.

Col. Tom Scott, of St. Louis, who is superintending the work of reconstructing the furnaces at Grand Rivers, was in the city last night, and returned this morning. He now has forty men at work there, and Monday will have at least one hundred.

Col. Scott thinks that Grand Rivers will certainly soon be revived, and that it has a great future. There is now unusual activity, and when the furnaces start in about four months there will doubtless be a larger boom than was ever known in the little place.

NEW BANK.

BANDANA IS STARTING OUT WITH A MODERN INSTITUTION.

Several prominent gentlemen of Bandana, Ballard county, yesterday met and organized a bank and the amount of capital stock subscribed is $30,000, although they didn't expect to get but $15,000. It is understood it will embark in business as soon as the necessary papers can be obtained. Messrs. Stewart, Payne and several others are interested in it.

SENSATIONAL INDICTMENTS

ASSISTANT LACKEY IS AMONG THE UNFORTUNATES

Charged With Gaming—The Grand Jury is at Present After Dr. McCormick, Former Superintendent.

Hopkinsville, June 26.—Indictments returned by the grand jury here are against the following for gambling at the insane asylum: First Assistant Physician Lackey, Second Assistant Stevens, Supervisor Robinson, Steward Leavelle, Prescriptionist Wathen, State Inspector's Clerk Phillips, Attendant Chiles and City Judge George P. Campbell. This afternoon the grand jury is investigating the charges against Dr. McCormick.

MARKET REPORT

(Market quotations furnished by Van Dusen & Arena, of the Paducah Commission company, 113 South Third street, received over their special wire to the Chicago board of trade and New York cotton and stock exchange. Telephone 491.)

GRAIN.
WHEAT—	Open	High	Low	Close
June.....	66 1/2	66 3/4	66 1/2	66 3/4
July.....	66 1/2	66 3/4	66 1/2	66 3/4
Sept.....	66 1/2	66 3/4	66 1/2	66 3/4
CORN—
July.....	48 1/2	48 3/4	48 1/2	48 3/4
Sept.....	44 1/2	44 3/4	44 1/2	44 3/4
OATS—
July.....	26 1/2	27 1/4	26 1/2	27 1/4
Sept.....	26 1/2	27 1/4	26 1/2	27 1/4

PROVISIONS
PORK—	July	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.
July.....	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
Sept.....	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
LARD—	July	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.
July.....	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2
Sept.....	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2
RIBS—	July	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.
July.....	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2
Sept.....	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2

N. Y. COTTON
July.....	8 7/8	8 7/8	8 7/8	8 7/8
Aug.....	7 7/8	7 7/8	7 7/8	7 7/8
Sept.....	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4
Oct.....	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4
Nov.....	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4
Dec.....	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4
Jan.....	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4	7 3/4

N. Y. S. OCKS
Sugar.....	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
B. R. T.....	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
A. S. T.....	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
U. S. S. F.....	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2	14 1/2
L. & N.....	109 1/2	109 1/2	109 1/2	109 1/2
T. O. I.....	87 1/2	87 1/2	87 1/2	87 1/2
O. B. Q.....	110 1/2	110 1/2	110 1/2	110 1/2
Mo. P.....	110 1/2	110 1/2	110 1/2	110 1/2

—The infant child of Mr. John Smith, of 1137 South Third Street, was buried today.

A FINE TRIP

Paducah Teachers Are Preparing to Attend the National Association.

MEETS AT DETROIT IN JULY

Prof. C. B. Hatfield in Charge of the Paducah Crowd—There Will be a Special Train Out of Louisville.

LASTS FROM JULY 8th TO 12th

Quite a number of Paducah teachers and others are preparing to attend the meeting of the National Educational Association at Detroit, Mich., from July 9th to 12th inclusive. Among those who have already announced their intention of going are: Supt. C. B. Hatfield, Prof. J. T. Ross, Mrs. May Riecke, Misses Adah Braselton, Flora McKee, Hannah Bonds, Harriet Wilson, Emma Morgan, Clara Moore.

Others will doubtless make up their minds later to go, and may leave later than the 8th, when the above crowd leaves Paducah. An attempt will be made to secure a list of citizens to go. A special train of the Kentucky crowd will be made up at Louisville and go straight through to Detroit.

The last meeting of the National Educational Association was held at Charleston, S. C., and was a great success. Teachers from all the southern and eastern states attended and the lectures and discussions were of great benefit to the educational world. It is confidently expected that the teachers will attend this meeting in even greater numbers than at the previous meetings, as the railroads have not only offered exceptionally low rates with stop-over privileges at various points, but the opportunity is afforded of seeing the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo, as well as the delightful summer resorts around Detroit.

Aside from these features there has been prepared a most elaborate program, full of interesting discussions and lectures on vital problems of education which are to be discussed by authorities who have been selected with great care. Among those who will speak are United States Commissioner of Education W. T. Harris, Hon. A. T. Bliss, governor of Michigan; Hon. W. C. Maybury, mayor of Detroit; and Hon. Richard Harcourt, minister of education, Toronto, Ont.; Prof. Hallack is down on the program for a discussion on "Economics and Education."

President W. Goodell Frost of Berea college will deliver a lecture entitled "Educational Pioneering in the Southern Mountains." Prof. Livingston McGintire, superintendent of the Hopkinsville public schools, will deliver a lecture entitled "The Library and School As Co-ordinate Forces in Education."

The programs already arranged promise a convention of unusual excellence and interest. There will be eight sessions of the general association, six sessions of the national council, five sessions of the department of Indian education, and two sessions of each of the other sixteen departments, making 51 sessions in all, including over 150 prepared papers on educational questions by eminent educators, besides numerous discussions, round tables and conferences.

The local executive committees at Detroit has provided 18 halls for meetings and all other facilities for successful convention sessions. Arrangements are in progress for entertaining in private homes, at reasonable rates, from 13,000 to 15,000 members in the expectation that the total attendance will reach 20,000.

All who desire to make the trip should communicate with Supt. Hatfield, and sign the list at once.

—Pure drugs carefully compounded. Soule's 1271

PROMINENT AGENTS

SEVERAL O. & E. I. MEN IN THE CITY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Yesterday afternoon late the following prominent Chicago and Eastern Illinois officials visited Paducah and were well pleased with our city: S. J. Cooke, Assistant General Freight Agent, both of Chicago; and Mr. J. E. Knickerbocker, Division Freight Agent, of Mt. Vernon, Ill. Before coming to Paducah they inspected the terminal at Joppy, Ill., and think there is a bright future for that growing little place. They were guests at the Palmer while here.

The John K. Speed passed Greenview yesterday, coming up. She will reach here about next Saturday on her way to Cincinnati.

IT IS OFFICIAL

Roadmaster L. A. Down's Appointment to New Orleans is Permanent

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Chief Engineer Harahan at Memphis—Changes on the Memphis Division Reported for July.

INTERESTING RAILROAD MATTERS

Mr. L. A. Down's transfer to the office of Road Master of the Mississippi division of the I. C. has been officially announced. Mr. Pat Galvin has been appointed Road Master of the Louisville division to succeed Mr. Down, and Mr. Martin Oran has been appointed to the place vacated by Mr. Pat Galvin. Mr. James Galvin has been appointed a supervisor of the northern end of the Louisville division. These changes were officially confirmed this morning.

Chief Engineer W. J. Harahan left this morning at five o'clock for Memphis on a special train accompanied by Superintendent A. Philbrick, of the Memphis division, and Train Master Jack Flynn.

Mr. Chas. Sugars, of the Yard Master's office, is on the sick list.

Mr. H. U. Wallace, superintendent of the Louisville division, returned to Louisville this morning accompanied by Mr. Martin Oran.

To provide for the fast growing export trade which is finding an outlet from the ports of the South will be the chief mission of J. T. Harahan of the Illinois Central railroad in a voyage to Europe which he will make next month. The directors of that great road have already taken steps largely to increase the facilities for handling this business by arranging for a weekly steamer service to Great Britain. This, however, is not sufficient and an effort will be made to attract additional shipping.

"When I go to Europe," said Mr. Harahan today, "I shall take with me facts and figures to show to vessel owners the importance of New Orleans as a port. In order to get tonnage to take care of the export trade it is necessary to induce imports. One is largely dependent upon the other. It will therefore be my task to try to prove to vessel owners that it will pay them to bring their merchandise to New Orleans for distribution and take away what the railroads will be able to bring to that city this year."

When improvements now under way by the Illinois Central in New Orleans are completed the company will have an elevator capacity there of 2,500,000 bushels.

Master Mechanic Barton returned from Louisville yesterday afternoon. Charles and Thomas Carrington and Robert Johnson, residing near Grantsburg, Ill., have been captured and placed in the Johnson county jail by special agent Griffin, of the Illinois Central railroad, charged with attempting to wreck a train on the Paducah branch of the road.

Several months ago Johnson's mother was killed near the place where the attempt to wreck the train occurred, and it is thought that a spirit of revenge was the animus back of the recent crime. A young man named Ashby escaped and has not as yet been captured. All the prisoners are young men. The present capture is considered a very important one by officials.

Supervisor W. O. Waggoner was in the city last night.

Grand barbecue at Brien's Ford, seven miles from Paducah on the Clark's river, Saturday, July 6. Plenty of amusement. Everybody invited.

SUES FOR SREVICES.

Mr. George T. Harris today filed suit in the circuit court against the Paducah News Publishing Co. to recover $104.85 he claims due him for work. Mr. Harris was for several months a reporter and during that time claims he was not paid regularly, and that a balance of $104.85 is due him.

GOOD PROMOTION

Following the announcement that M. J. F. Wallace is to be made a director of the Illinois Central, comes the announcement that General Superintendent M. Gillespie is to be promoted, and will have his headquarters in Chicago. The Paducah Leader says that the change is to take place some time next month, and that Mr. Gillespie is to be succeeded by Mr. W. S. King, now superintendent of the Jackson, Tenn., division of the Illinois Central. It is not now announced who will succeed Mr. King.

MARRIED IN JACKSON

A POPULAR I. C. FREIGHT CONDUCTOR WEDS MISS ADAMSON.

Mr. Frank Stetzel, a well known freight conductor on the Paducah and Jackson, Tenn., run, was married at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in Jackson, to Miss Elizabeth Adamson. Mr. Stetzel has many friends here who will be pleasantly surprised to learn of his matrimonial venture. The young lady is well known in Tennessee and is one of the most young ladies in Jackson.

A BOY'S CLOTH

Mr. Eddie Farrah bicycle this morning on Third, between Broadway and Main street, and death. He jumped on him and narrated under the wheel, good scare he was.

TOBACCO

All the tobacco held so far had a suit. One hoghead were lugs which brought from $4.75 to $5.55.

A BOY BADLY HURT.

Marshall, the 8 year old son of Mr. "Doc" Bryant of Harrison street, while cutting wood this morning cut his right foot with an axe. An artery was severed and for a time it looked as if he would bleed to death. Dr.

Hot Weather Fabrics!

We are showing a large variety of white and colored muslins. Good, sheer white linen 10 cents per yard. Beautiful white dotted Muslin 25 cents per yard. Fast colored, fancy stripe dimities, extra width, 10 cents per yard. Beautiful patterns in fine colored Batiste, 10 cents per yard. Fine French Dimities in assorted colors, 25 cents per yard.

Waists and Skirts.

See those wash skirts and shirt waists on our bargain counter. For Good Linen, Covert, and white to some skirts, full width and well made. Your choice for 98 cents. Well made and fast colored skirt waists of fancy Batiste and percale, 75 cents and $1.00 values for only 49 cents each.

Cut Prices In Carpets.

MILLINERY.

Don't fail to see the good values offered in muslin underwear. Still a good assortment of millinery at low prices.

Miss Zula Cobbs SECOND FLOOR.

Our Shoe Department.

We are showing hot weather shoes at zero prices. If you want cool feet get them into a pair of our Some are shoes or Some are Slippers. $1.68 buys Men's $3 Tan Shoes, all sizes. $2.00 buys Mens $3.00 Tan Shoes, sizes limited. $1.75 buys Womens $2.50 Tan Oxford's best make. 98 cents buys Woman's Tan, odds and ends, $1.25 to $2.00 goods. $2.00 buys Men's best Vici or Velour. Call Shoes at $2.50. $2.00 see our Old Man's Comfort ex-

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

Henry Mammen, Jr.

BOOK BINDING
A Thoroughly-equipped Book-making plant. You need send nothing out of town.
Patent Flat Opening Book

Hot Weather Is Here

don't do much cooking these days. Call on me for goods. I have the best on the market. All the fruits and vegetables always on hand. Call on me to save you a trip to market.

LALLY, The Grocer.
Corner 10th and Trimble

The Paducah Sun

BY THE SUN PUBLISHING COMPANY
(INCORPORATED)
Frank M. Pender, President and Editor.
Ed. J. Pender, General Manager.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
(Entered at the postoffice at Paducah, Ky., as second class matter.)
THE DAILY SUN.
By carrier, per week, $1.00
By mail, per month, in advance, $2.50
By mail, per year, in advance, $25.00
Sunday Chat and Sun, per week, $1.00
THE WEEKLY SUN.
One year, by mail, postage paid, $1.00
Address The Sun, Paducah, Ky.
OFFICE: 214 Broadway | TELEPHONE: No. 55

The SUN can be found for sale at the following places.
R. D. Clements & Co.
VanCulin Bros.
Palmer House

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1901.

A DAILY THOUGHT.
Small griefs find tongues; full casques are ever found
To give, if any, yet but little sound;
Deep waters noiseless are; and this we know,
That chiding streams betray small depth below. —Herrick

The gentleman tried in Marshall county for perjury the other day and acquitted threatens to sue the sheriff of McCracken county for putting him in jail. It is true that the sheriff had a warrant, but then he ought to have sat up all night and guarded the fastidious prisoner, paid for his meals at the best hotel, set up the drinks every half hour and then paid him a good round sum not to complain. He should never have thought of putting him in jail!

A Mayfield woman who had been criticised by the ministers for permitting dances at her hotel, hands them off the following red hot roast:
"Whether it is sinful for young people to dance is not a question for me to decide. Some of the most refined, elevated and educated men and women do dance, and some of the leading churches do not condemn it. The president and the governors of all states give balls and frivish balls, and the foremost people of the land, judges of the supreme court, senators, scholars and divines attend. And it becoming in ministers of Christ, the friend of the widows and the orphans, to attempt to injure a widow, a stranger and alone, when they haven't the nerve to condemn the same and far worse faults of those in high places? Verily they strain at a gnat and swallow a camel!"
And the next night she gave another ball.

The Lexington Leader says: "Circuit Judge Tarvin, of Kenton county, has read a scurrilous lecture to United States Judge Walter Evans on the iniquity of dragging the bench into politics. We don't know of any man in Kentucky who is better qualified to discuss the subject than Judge Tarvin as there is no depth of political or personal feeling to which he has not been willing to drag his petti-fogging court." And then makes this timely suggestion:
"What's the matter with sending the Hon. James P. McCreary to the Pan-American exposition as a Feejee Island American exhibit?"

The Louisville papers seem to have it in for the parks there and are trying to reform them. The only surprise at the state of affairs painted in such lurid colors by the papers, seems to be felt by the papers themselves. Everybody else seems to know that as a usual thing the parks have been a favorite place for funny happenings ever since the Garden of Eden came to the front with the greatest snake story on record. The most careless vigilance will fail to convert public parks into Sunday schools.

We are informed that Mr. Yeiser voted for Mr. Bryan, Mr. Goebel, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Beckham. Presumably this makes him a Democrat. We know of men who voted for Mr. McKinley who have voted against Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Goebel and Mr. Beckham, and they ought by the same method of reasoning to be Republicans. Yes they would feel deeply grieved if they were called Republicans. Some of them may be on the present Democratic ticket.

The world looks on as apace while Fulton, Ky., and Jackson, Tenn., make wry faces and swear they will "ootopus" each other. They have fallen out over the removal of the division officers of the Illinois Central from Jackson to Fulton. Nothing to fall out over neighbors. We are sure that if the officials could take their choice they'd come to Paducah.

The Metropolis Herald says Paducah is threatened with an epidemic of smallpox and is thinking of quarantining against Metropolis. This is a mistake. Paducah is threatened with no epidemic of anything. If all the people in Metropolis had smallpox and came to Paducah you could lose 'em within a few blocks and no one would ever know they were here.

As they can testify down at Mayfield every little that's labelled "bitters" hasn't got "bitters" in it. So with Democracy.

Henderson, Hopkinsville, Louisville and other "towns" think they are warm numbers. They ought to come to Paducah, where every few days old Sol does a stunt and the mercury gracefully ascends to the 100 mark. Then they could talk.

The Unionville correspondent of the Brookport Eagle piously remarks: "A great many of our farmers are cutting wheat. God be with them." If it is as hot over there as it is here it is very unpropitious to extend the invitation just at this time. It would be a more congenial climate for the other fellow.

A FINE BARN.

MR. ROTTGERING MAKES A GOOD ADDITION TO HIS PROPERTY.
One of the handsomest barns to be found anywhere is the one just completed by Mr. Rottgering, the dairy man. It was erected by Messrs. Cross and Vogt, the well known contractors and cost $1,600. It is a splendid sample of barn building and shows the high class of work these gentlemen are turning out.

APPLICANTS FOR COUNTY SCHOOL.

The following are the names of the applicants for teachers' certificates in the county schools whose examinations were finished Saturday. Friday and Saturday the colored applicants will be examined. Thell Futrell, Lone Oak; Lillie Rouse, Lone Oak; Etta Ware, Maxon Mills; Laura Thomas, Bantana; Mattie Grant, Hinkleville; Mrs. Florence Grant, Lamont; Coy Reeder, Fristoe; J. D. Burrow, city; K. Rudolph, Massac; W. K. Ragdale, Massac; Letcher Thompson, Melber; W. F. Harrison, Sharpe; Gerrie Spalding, Maxon Mills; Addie Edwards, Lamont; Maude Leffingwell, city.

THE ANGORA GOAT.

Animal Has Attained High Standard in Breeder's Hands.
The Angora goat is a native of Turkey in Asia. The Turks look upon the goat with feelings akin to reverence. Mohammedan deities are blessing upon all houses where a goat was kept and promised that if an angel should pass a house where three goats were maintained the angel should look in upon the household. Orthodox Turks believe to this day that goats bring peace and prosperity. The province of Angora is mountainous and surrounded by deep valleys. The mean altitude is about 3,000 feet. The climate is extreme. In January and February the thermometer ranges from 10 degrees Fahrenheit to zero, while in June and July it remains in the eighties for days at a time with little or no rain. The country is covered with snow in winter. Rain and snow fall frequently. While the more elevated parts are generally shaded with fine forests, the plateau, which form a large part of the country, are very little wooded, and this permits the frost heat of spring to dry up the little humidity which the earth has acquired in winter. Abundant pasture is found for goats only after the frosts and snows, when the first warm rains revive the vegetation. This time is of short duration and the stimulus given by copious and succulent nourishment is exerted wholly in developing the valuable fleeces. The modern Angora is a rugged breed formed by crossing the original Angora, a more delicate animal, with the Kurd or common Turkish goat. The success of such crossing is attested by all authorities, and the same policy has been carried out in America and South Africa in crossing Angoras with the common goats of each country. This breed, which is not quite fixed, is gradually tending to become so, is a larger, somewhat coarser, harder breed, with a more oily and much heavier fleece, though, though not attaining to the high level of that of the original pure Angora, is nevertheless in the best specimens of great beauty and excellence, and equal to the most exacting demands of the present combining trade. As the fleeces combine with increased weight, a sufficiently high standard of excellence and as the goat is hardier and heatier than the pure Angora, it is the more remunerative breed, and when fixed at the high standard it is the most intelligent breeders. It is superior and preferable to the original pure breed.

FACTS ABOUT ARMIES.

Alexander's Large Phalanx Known as a Tetra Phalanx.
Until the time of the XII of Sweden the artillery was not considered a part of the army; the men serving in it were not soldiers, but regarded as mechanics; the officers had no rank. Charles XII gave artillery officers a rank and regularly organized the artillery into companies. The battle of Pavia demonstrated the superiority of the gun in the hands of the Spanish infantry. The musket carried a two ounce ball, and sometimes brought down an iron fire (two or three times). The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used for outposts, patrols and reconnoitering duty; and the dimachoe, or troops expected to act either as cavalry or infantry. Alexander the great reorganized his father's army. The French sent a flag of truce to remonstrate against the use of such barbarous weapons. Alexander, says Pearson's Weekly, had four kinds of cavalry—the cataphracts, or heavy armed horse; the light cavalry, carrying spears and very light armour; the acrobatae, or mounted archers, used

LEE WALTERS IS CLEARED

Another Chapter In the Celebrated Marshall County Case Closed Today.

The jury in the case against Lee Walters, of this county, but formerly of Marshall county, this morning shortly after court convened brought in a verdict of acquittal at Benton.

Walters was charged with swearing falsely in the "Tex" Sprague case. Sprague a few months ago claimed that he could prove that Walters paid a man named Foley to shoot into his, Walters' house, an offense that Sprague was arrested and fined for. Walters now lives in McCracken county, in the Maxon's Mills section.

SALTY CHARGES

General Chaffee Accuses the Allied Armies of Many Murders.

SHOWED NO QUARTER

It is Claimed That Fifty Coolies and One Boxer Were Killed—Women Not Soared.

CREATED GREAT DISTRUST IN CHINA

Washington, June 31.—The report of Major-General Chaffee on the campaign in China is being prepared for publication at the war department. Among other matters it contains special reports upon the Russian, Japanese, French and British troops; also reports on equipment, supplies, etc., of foreign troops, and reports on different expeditions. These reports were made by United States officers, and from a military point of view are of considerable interest, but nearly all the main facts have heretofore been published.

Some of Gen. Chaffee's comments are interesting. At one point he says: "For about three weeks following the arrival of the column at Pekin the condition in and about the city and along the line of communication was bad. Looting of the city, foraging in the surrounding country and seizure by soldiers of everything a Chinaman might have, as vegetables, eggs, chickens, sheep, cattle, etc., whether being brought to the city or found on the farms; indiscriminate and generally unprovoked shooting of Chinese in city, country, and along the line of march and the river—all this did not tend, as was natural, to gain for the troops the confidence of the masses, with whom it is certain we had no quarrel, but were in need of their labor. It is safe to say that where one real boxer was killed since the capture of Pekin, fifty harmless coolies or laborers on farms, including not a few women and children, have been slain. No doubt the boxer element is largely mixed with the mass of population, and by slaying a lot, one or more boxers might be taken in."

Gen. Chaffee speaks of the restraint he placed on American troops. The Japanese commander also made it known that general war on all classes was not intended. Gen. Chaffee says he opposed entering the Forbidden City unless looting was prohibited. This was agreed to and he thinks that but little looting was done there, though articles have been offered for sale said to have been taken from the Forbidden City.

MISS JEANETTE CAMPBELL WINNING LAURELS IN NEW YORK

The New York Clipper of this week contains an excellent picture of Miss Jeanette Campbell, of Paducah, daughter of Judge James Campbell, the well known lawyer. Miss Campbell has been studying for the stage for past year or more in New York and it will be pleasant news to her many friends here to know that she is achieving a most enviable success. She has been given every advantage and has been trained under the best teachers in the largest dramatic schools of the east, and is now playing prominent roles in Proctor's Stock company at Albany, N. Y.

The Clipper, which is the leading dramatic magazine of America, compliments Miss Campbell most highly and her many friends may expect to hear of her reaching the highest pinnacles of fame in the course of time. Her art is of the highest order, and her work in amateur organizations before she left Paducah was at all times most creditable, and evoked the most unstinted and deserved praise. Miss Campbell's many friends will wish her every measure of success.

KENTUCKIANS' MARRIAGE BY AT METROPOLIS. Thomas M. Watson and Miss Emma A. Jones, of Ledbetter, Ky., were in the city yesterday on route to Metropolis, where they were married by Judge Thomas Liggett. They have returned home.

FOUR MONTHS

This Much Time Will Be Required to Repair the Grand Rivers Furnaces.

COL. TOM SCOTT IN THE CITY

He Went Up This Morning to Grand Rivers to Look After Preliminary Work There.

DEAL PRACTICALLY CONSUMMATED

From Friday's daily. It will probably be fall before the Grand Rivers "boom" is well under way. It is estimated that this length of time will be required to get the furnaces in good shape. They are to be practically rebuilt, and work will begin on them at once.

While the Grand Rivers deal, transferring the property to Messrs. Scott, Simmons and Harrison, of St. Louis, has not been entirely complete, it has been so near consummated that the projectors of the new boom feel justified in spending their money getting things in shape.

Col. Tom Scott, of St. Louis, arrived this morning on the early train, and left at noon for Grand Rivers, to take the necessary steps to have the work of improving the property begun. He will have material ordered, and see that the preliminaries are well looked after. The gentlemen, while at Grand Rivers several days ago, made a note of everything that is needed, and this will greatly facilitate the work.

About four months will be required to do all the work necessary on the furnaces, and when this is completed they will be started and the Grand Rivers "boom" will be a reality.

Col. Scott will probably be in Grand Rivers several days. He was in consultation with various gentlemen while here today, but said very little about his plans. He stated that lawyers were still at work trying to unravel the deed intricacies and will probably succeed in adjusting every thing in a short time.

LEE WALTERS SAID TO BE PEARING A DAMAGE SUIT.

Lee Walters, of this county, who was yesterday acquitted at Benton of perjury in the "Tex" Sprague case, has according to reports signified his intention of suing Sheriff Rogers and other McCracken county officers for alleged false imprisonment.

He was arrested here several months ago and placed in jail until he could be taken to Benton. Henry Foley, the man who swore that Walters paid him to shoot into his, Walters' house, has according to reports been indicted for perjury. As a former trial he swore he did not know who did the shooting.

FINE STOCK BURNED AT A TRAINING STABLE IN LINCOLN COUNTY.

McKinney, June 21.—There was a severe storm throughout Lincoln county last night and much damage was done. Lightning fired a training stable and much fine stock was burned in the ensuing conflagration.

CLOTHING HOUSE IN GRAVES CLOSING ITS DOORS.

Mayfield, June 21.—Stovall & Brand, a dry goods and clothing establishment, made an assignment today. There is no schedule, and the failure is attributed to heavy buying and dull business.

COMMENCEMENT AT ST. MARY'S ACADEMY MOST ENJOYABLE.

There was a large and delighted crowd at St. Mary's academy yesterday afternoon to attend the commencement exercises, and the young people most creditably acquitted themselves. The program was well rendered and showed excellent training. The graduates this year were Misses Sadie Paxton and Carrie Warren.

ESTRAY NOTICE.

A red and white spotted cow about five years old strayed from my residence in this city about ten days ago. A liberal reward will be paid for her return to P. J. BERGDOLL, Town of Madison. w3042

FIRM MARKET

The Prices in the Local Tobacco Market This Week Unchanged.

THE WEEK'S LOCAL SALES

Two Firms Held Sales in Paducah, and the Offerings Were Quite Large During the Week.

THE REJECTIONS WERE LIGHT

From Thursday's daily. The tobacco market experienced practically no change from that of last week excepting on lugs. There were larger offerings but the bidding was not so lively as was expected. The market has recovered somewhat from its recent declension. Gilbert & Co. held no sales yesterday but will offer a few hogheads today.

J. W. Farmer & Co. report three-fourths of the breaks, lugs and the prices on lugs two bids lower than last week. The following is the report: Offered 100 with undetermined rejections.

Common to medium leaf sold from $5.50 to $6.50. Medium to good leaf brought from $7.50 to $9.

Lugs were a little easier than last week and were about two bids easier than last week's lug market.

Leaf is reported fully up in comparison with the market of the past several weeks. There were no hogheads of fine leaf offered. The out of town buyers were out in force. Mr. J. T. Myles, formerly a prominent tobacco buyer of Mayfield, but now of Louisville, was in the city yesterday attending the sales.

Fields Bros., who came here from Fulton and opened a warehouse several months ago have several hogheads to sell but did not offer them yesterday. They have conducted only one sale since they started their business.

The Western District Warehouse company report the market generally a little lower than that of last week with a drop in lugs. The breaks were principally lugs and common leaf with one hoghead of good leaf, bringing $10. There was no fine leaf offered. The following is the report of yesterday's sales.

Offered 118 hogheads. Rejections light. Common leaf sold from $5.50 to $7.50.

Lugs sold from $4.45 to $5.50, a drop of two bids, about 15 cents.

The sales were attended by a number of country tobacco growers with very few out of town buyers. The sales were not satisfactory to the dealers.

The local dealers think the market will pick up in the next several weeks and regain its former activity.

Observations ...at Random

A well known young man of Paducah who has dyspepsia claims that he is a record breaker when it comes to egg eating. He ate from last September until April, eighty-eight dozen eggs, or 1,056 eggs in six months, 176 eggs a month. He discovered about two months ago that one of the patent foods sold at the stores sufficed to keep him better than the eggs, and he now lives off that.

CREAL SPRINGS COUPLE THAT WOULDN'T BE DISAPPOINTED.

Arthur McRoy and Miss Ida McCuan, of Creal Springs, who were in the city yesterday afternoon and made two attempts to get a marriage license, but were refused because they were not of age, crossed over to Metropolis and were married there by Justice Liggett.

The groom is 18 and the bride 19, but the young man produced a paper purporting to have been written by his father, giving his consent, and swore that his father authorized him to write it. The license was issued on that statement, and the marriage proceeded.

TORACCO.

From Friday's daily.

The tobacco market experienced practically no change from that of last week excepting on lugs. There were larger offerings but the bidding was not so lively as was expected. The market has recovered somewhat from its recent declension. Gilbert & Co. held no sales yesterday but will offer a few hogheads today.

Lugs were a little easier than last week and were about two bids easier than last week's lug market. Leaf is reported fully up in comparison with the market of the past several weeks. Inspector Miller reports as follows: Receipts week, 336 hogheads. Receipts year, 5,180 hogheads. Offerings week, 309 hogheads. Rejections week, 49 hogheads. Private sales week, 35 hogheads. Sales week, 295 hogheads. Sales year, 3,325.

A BROOKPORT SENSATION.

The Metropolis Herald says that quite a sensation was created at Brookport by the discovery of the body of a new born infant in a vault at a residence. The corpse was called from Metropolis to hold an inquest.

It seems from reports that a woman alleged to be named "Bertha" Sigk is the mother of the infant. She came from Pope county and was a domestic at the house where the body was found.

THE OIL FIELDS

Mr. George C. Wallace Just Back From Texas on Business.

FOUR WELLS TO BE BORED

Some of the Property Has Been Sold, But No More is on the Market—Many Big Land Suits.

CAPT. PELL TELLS ABOUT GAS HERE

From Saturday's daily. Mr. George C. Wallace, who had been in Texas for several weeks, returned this morning to remain about ten days or two weeks on business.

He reports progress in the preparations for boring on his property. They were at first delayed by the difficulty in getting pipe, and then it was learned that wells would have to be dug for water to furnish the boilers with steam. This caused further delay, but now there are four derricks upon the Wisdom property, and all the necessary pipes, machinery and other material is there, ready for use, and boring will begin at once.

Quite an area of the property has already been sold at good prices, but no further sales will be made until the boring is finished. There are plenty of offers, but Mr. Wallace and other owners do not desire to dispose of it at present.

Texas is now very much excited over the oil discoveries, but there is less confusion than formerly. Mr. Wallace reports that there are now over $50,000,000 in suits pending in the courts over land that has more than one claimant.

Mr. Wallace will return to Texas as soon as he completes his business here.

Mr. Charles Pell, the veteran river man, was in a reminiscent mood this morning, and in speaking of the report that there was oil down below the ice factory, on the river bank, said:

"I remember about fifty years ago that we used to go down to the foot of what is now Jefferson street, when the river was low, and amuse ourselves lighting the bubbles that came up through the shallow water from the ground."

"It was a favorite diversion with all the boys in those days, and many is the time that we lighted the gas and watched it burn. I notice that one man is quoted as saying that it was oil, but in those days we called it gas."

"I remember that once the late Mr. J. G. Fisher, afterwards mayor, placed a hoghead over one of the small gas jets provided by nature and ignited it, and it burned for several days. It was certainly gas."

"You could find those little jets then at most any place during low water from Jefferson street to where the Illinois Central incline now is. It may be oil now but it was gas in those days."

"It used to be a favorite theory in those days that the gas was generated from the vast deposits of dead leaves that decayed all over the bank. In later years I have heard nothing of the gas that we used to enjoy so much half a century ago, but it may still be there."

THE BAZAR DESTROYED BY FIRE AND ADJOINING ESTABLISHMENTS DAMAGED THIS MORNING

STARTED AT 3 O'CLOCK

The Fire Department's Good Work Saves Adjoining Buildings—Ladies Escape by Ladder.

From Friday's daily. The Bazaar, at 215 Broadway, was gutted by fire at an early hour this morning and the adjoining buildings were saved only through the good work of the fire department.

The blaze broke out shortly after 3 o'clock. It started in the rear of the house from an unknown origin and swept upwards, cutting off all means of escape for the Misses Abram, who resided up stairs. The two ladies were rescued by stationmen who placed a ladder to the balcony at the second floor and assisted them to the street.

The entire stock of goods will be practically a total loss as that was not burned was soaked with water and ruined by smoke.

The furniture in the residence was also burned or ruined.

The stock of goods was valued at about $5,000 much of it being new, and just received. There is $4,000 insurance on it.

The building is owned by the Hennesberger heirs, and the damage to it will amount to two thousand dollars or more.

The clothing store of S. Fols, next door to the Bazaar, was damaged by smoke and water to the extent of a thousand dollars or more. The loss will be fully covered by insurance.

Mr. John Doherty's stock of dry goods on the other side was slightly damaged by smoke.

The fire was a very dangerous one, and for a time the entire block was in danger. The fire departments did splendid work, and soon had the flames under control.

The total loss will be between $8,000 and $10,000 with partial insurance.

MARRIED IN ST. LOUIS. Yesterday's St. Louis Republic says: A couple who acted very mysteriously and gave their names, ages and addresses as James B. Pierce, 30, of Fidelity, Ill., and Miss Laura Kelt, 37, of Paducah, Ky., were married by Justice of the Peace Carson, of Belleville yesterday afternoon. Deputy county clerk Waite McCaughy issued the marriage license, and to some of his questions the couple refused to answer. They maintained as much silence at the office of Magistrate Carson, and after the ceremony boarded a suburban car for St. Louis.

ILLNESS HAS AGED MRS. M'KINLEY.

Photograph Showing President's Wife as She Appears Today, Revealing Sad Changes in Appearance—Friends are Pained at Her Altered Appearance.

Mrs. McKinley is no longer the smiling calm featured woman the many published photographs show her to be. The ravages of sickness have left their blighting traces upon the features of the sweet-tempered mistress of the White House and during the past few years she has aged more than the President. The above exclusive, authentic photograph shows Mrs. McKinley as she looks today. Her friends are aghast at her altered appearance.

$8,000 LOSS

The Bazaar Destroyed By Fire and Adjoining Establishments Damaged This Morning

STARTED AT 3 O'CLOCK

The Fire Department's Good Work Saves Adjoining Buildings—Ladies Escape by Ladder.

PARTLY COVERED BY INSURANCE

From Friday's daily.

The Bazaar, at 215 Broadway, was gutted by fire at an early hour this morning and the adjoining buildings were saved only through the good work of the fire department.

The blaze broke out shortly after 3 o'clock. It started in the rear of the house from an unknown origin and swept upwards, cutting off all means of escape for the Misses Abram, who resided up stairs. The two ladies were rescued by stationmen who placed a ladder to the balcony at the second floor and assisted them to the street.

The entire stock of goods will be practically a total loss as that was not burned was soaked with water and ruined by smoke.

The furniture in the residence was also burned or ruined.

The stock of goods was valued at about $5,000 much of it being new, and just received. There is $4,000 insurance on it.

The building is owned by the Hennesberger heirs, and the damage to it will amount to two thousand dollars or more.

The clothing store of S. Fols, next door to the Bazaar, was damaged by smoke and water to the extent of a thousand dollars or more. The loss will be fully covered by insurance.

Mr. John Doherty's stock of dry goods on the other side was slightly damaged by smoke.

The fire was a very dangerous one, and for a time the entire block was in danger. The fire departments did splendid work, and soon had the flames under control.

The total loss will be between $8,000 and $10,000 with partial insurance.

MARRIED IN ST. LOUIS.

Yesterday's St. Louis Republic says: A couple who acted very mysteriously and gave their names, ages and addresses as James B. Pierce, 30, of Fidelity, Ill., and Miss Laura Kelt, 37, of Paducah, Ky., were married by Justice of the Peace Carson, of Belleville yesterday afternoon. Deputy county clerk Waite McCaughy issued the marriage license, and to some of his questions the couple refused to answer. They maintained as much silence at the office of Magistrate Carson, and after the ceremony boarded a suburban car for St. Louis.

The Sun only 10¢ a week.

HALF AND HALF. PLUM DROPS

ONE SENTENCE AFFIRMED AND ONE REVERSED BY APPELLATE COURT.

Frankfort, Ky., June 24.—The appellate court this morning affirmed the sentence of Reuben Quimp, colored, convicted at Danville of the murder of Officer Crum, and sentenced to hang. The officer had gone into Quimp's dive to arrest him and was shot.

The sentence of Dr. Clark, convicted at Sturgis of the murder of Cora Waller, and given ten years was reversed.

SUES FOR $1,000.

DR. HARRIS' ATTORNEYS HAVE ANOTHER SUIT READY TO FILE.

From Friday's daily. Dr. W. J. Harris, of St. Louis, will in a day or two file suit against Mr. E. Rehkopf for $1,000 for professional services. Berry and Harrison are his attorneys.

He sued for $800 a few months ago but dismissed the suit at the last term of court without prejudice. He performed two operations, charging $1,000 each. He compromised the first for $800. The suit now prepared is for the second.

TANK BURNED.

THE N. C. AND T. L. LOSSES WATER TANK AND PUMP HOUSE.

From Friday's daily.

The water tank and pump house at Jola, on the N. C. and St. L., burned last night, entailing a loss of about $1,500.

The blaze is supposed to have started from a defective flue at the pump station.

THE CITY WON.

The jury in the case of Sam Liebel against the city of Paducah for damages resulting to a horse which fell through a culvert near a private alley, was tried before Justice Hook yesterday afternoon and decided in favor of the city. An appeal was granted.

HUGHES' CHILL TONIC

(PALATABLE.) Better Than Calomel and Quinine (CONTAINS NO ARSENIC.) THE OLD RELIABLE EXCELLENT GENERAL TONIC

—as well as— A Sure Cure for CHILLS and FEVERS Malarial Fevers, Swamp Fevers and Bilious Fevers.

It Never Fails. Just What You Need at This Season. Mild Laxative. Nervous Sedative. Splendid Tonic.

CHAS. H. HUGHES, DRUGGIST. Don't Take Any Substitute—Try it. 50c and $1.00 Bottles.

Prepared by ROBINSON-PETIT COMPANY, (INCORPORATED) LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

PLUM DROPS

Dr. James Again Appointed United States Marshal for Kentucky.

ANNOUNCED THIS MORNING

Great Surprise Created Over the Report That the Sartoris-Balfour Wedding is Off.

NO EXPLANATION MADE OF THE CAUSE

From Friday's daily.

Dr. JAMES REAPPOINTED. Washington, June 22.—Dr. A. D. James was this morning reappointed United States marshal for Kentucky. The appointment was no surprise, as he had given general satisfaction and it was thought all the time he would be reappointed without opposition.

WEDDING DECLARED OFF.

London, June 22.—The Morning Post prints an announcement that the marriage of Miss Vivien Sartoris, grand daughter of Mrs. U. S. Grant, and Archibald Balfour, will not occur. No explanation accompanies the announcement and the affair has created a great stir in social circles.

CLASH IS IMMINENT.

Matewan, W. Va., June 22.—A serious clash between striking miners and armed guards is imminent, and there is fear of bloodshed.

A LUNATIC.

A BANDANA WOMAN TAKEN THROUGH TO HOPKINSVILLE TODAY.

From Friday's daily.

Messrs. R. F. Bradshaw and C. S. Hall, of Bandana, passed through the city today at noon en route to Hopkinsville, with Mrs. W. M. Bradshaw, aged 60 years, the former's mother, whom they will place in the asylum there. Mrs. Bradshaw has been insane for the past six months and was an inmate of the asylum until about three months ago, when she was discharged as cured. She became worse several weeks ago and it was found necessary to again place her in that institution. The cause of her demented condition is nervousness.

C. E. CONVENTIONS.

The State Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in Covington, July 6th, in the First Christian Church, and at the same time the National Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in Cincinnati at the Music Hall, July 6th to 9th. Endeavorers will be able to attend both meetings with all ease, and many will no doubt take advantage of the unusual opportunity. Great preparations are being made and the programme will be most interesting.

THE BEST STORY

Written upon a Subject Interesting to all Readers of the Sun.

A STORY WITH A SEQUEL.

In searching about for a story that would interest the people the writer selected one that paralleled the story with all the details of a woman's life.

SUITS.

Kind constantly seeking something new; some new field of labor; some new invention; some new scenery; and all are seeking new ideas of fashion and dress. The particular new idea of fashion is not always the greatest object of study and research with the great masses of people. Some are looking for a cheap article of wearing apparel and others are looking for an article of wearing apparel cheap. And there are still others who are looking for an article of wearing apparel which cost the greatest amount of money. The latter class is comparatively small to the great masses of the second class mentioned above. However the writer of this story desires to address all the above classes, as he feels that each and every one will be extremely interested in the real object of this article. Fad, fancy and fashion seem to be the principal theme of the story, but there is a sequel to follow that will probably touch the much coveted goal of all fashions and fill the desire and long felt want of an anxious people seeking good, reliable wearing apparel at the lowest possible prices.

This is not a fairy tale or a catch penny scheme but an honest and liberal reduction on reliable merchandise at fair values. We call attention to a good cotton worsted suit for men at $2.95. Our better grade of cheap price suits are made of woolen material in up to date stripes for $3.98. We call your attention to a few samples of other suits displayed in our clothing windows at greatly reduced prices. Our line of boys' and children's suits is practically unbroken, and everything has been reduced in price, but your special attention is called to a big lot of juvenile suits in sizes from three to seven years at prices from $1.00 to $2.00. These goods are positively worth double the price. Beginning Monday morning we will make the following price for one week: Yard wide Broken domestic for 4 cents. Dress gingham worth 10 cents for 6 1/4 cents. All our 8 1/3 cent percale for 7 1/4 cents. Best indigo blue calico 4 1/2 cents. Three pieces of silk challie, worth 40 cents for 25 cents per yard. All our $1.00 corsets for 79 cents. All our $1.00 kid gloves for 84 cents a pair.

T. Schwab,

216 Broadway.

HOTEL CLERK RESIGNS.

Charles Bradford, the night clerk at the New Richmond house has resigned his position and will return home to Indianapolis to take charge of a grocery store his father has lately purchased. He has been with the hotel a short time only having accepted the position about two weeks ago. His successor has not yet been appointed.

The Sun, Paducah's best paper.

Matil-Efinger and Company, Undertakers and Embalmers. Store 'Phone 126. Residence 'Phone 130 S.

HEALTH AND DESTRUCTION

The Elkhorn Valley Swept By a Mighty Flood Yesterday Morning Early and

One Hundred Perish—The Loss of Property Will Reach Millions—Thirty Miles Railroad Washed Away—Much Suffering.

From Monday's daily.

OTHER JOHNSTOWN HORROR.
Johnstown, Pa., June 24.—This entire section has been visited by a flood, the extent of which, in all probability, will nearly equal that of Johnstown, Pa., so far as the loss of property is concerned.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

This continued rain has fallen in the Elkhorn valley, and has been so heavy that it has washed away the railroad tracks, and has destroyed the bridges, and has washed away the houses, and has washed away the churches, and has washed away the schools, and has washed away the mills, and has washed away the factories, and has washed away the stores, and has washed away the homes, and has washed away the lives of many people.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several days.

MANY DEATHS

Sudden Demise of County Judge Tully Shocks Many People in the City.

SUMMONS UNEXPECTED

Capt. R. G. Rouse, for a Quarter of a Century Agent for the St. Bernard Coal Co., Succumbs After a Hard Fight.

OTHER DEATHS IN AND ABOUT PADUCAH

From Monday's daily.

JUDGE J. C. TULLY.

The sudden and unexpected death of County Judge J. C. Tully yesterday morning about five o'clock at his residence on West Jefferson street occasioned widespread regret throughout the city. It came as a great shock to his hundreds of friends, many of whom had seen him only the day before, and did not know that he was seriously ill.

Judge Tully had been in failing health for several months, and night before last, on account of the heat, occupied a different room from the one in which he generally slept. About 4:00 he got up and put out the lamp, got a drink of water and after going out on the porch to get a breath of fresh air, went to bed in another room. In a short time his wife heard him groan, and upon going to him found him unconscious and in a dying condition. He was never conscious and passed away shortly after Dr. C. H. Brothers, and shortly before Dr. Murrell, the family physician, arrived.

Judge Tully was born in New York City August 12th, 1838. He had been a resident of Paducah since 1887, formerly being pastor of the Christian Church in St. Louis. He was at different times since his residence here in the real estate and other business, and served one term as magistrate, being elected county judge four years ago. He was ordained a minister in 1861, and married Miss Loretta Moore, of Illinois, the following year.

He was defeated for the Democratic nomination for county judge last spring by Hon. R. T. Lightfoot, but was one of the most prominent and popular men in the county. His health had been failing for several months past, and he only returned from a trip to Milwaukee and other places a week ago. Death is attributed to heart disease.

The deceased leaves a wife and four children, Mrs. Maria Truscott, of Remus, Okla., Messrs. Wynne and Owen Tully, and Mrs. T. A. Lyle, of the city. A daughter, Miss Kate, died only a few weeks ago. He also leaves a brother, Mr. Thomas De Witt Tully, in Brooklyn, N. Y. His death is the third to occur in the family in one year.

Judge Tully had been in the real estate business most of his life. He often preached at the Christian Church here a few years ago, although at that time he had retired from the ministry. He resigned the pastorate of his church in St. Louis in January, 1887, and since that time had resided in Paducah.

He was an Odd Fellow, Mason, and a Christian gentleman of sterling worth. The funeral of the late County Judge J. C. Tully will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, services at the house by Rev. Pinkerton, burial at Oak Grove under the auspices of the Odd Fellows.

The board of magistrates meets tomorrow morning to take appropriate action at the death of Judge Tully.

CAPT. R. G. ROUSE.
Capt. Robert G. Rouse, for many years agent for the St. Bernard Coal Company here, died yesterday morning at his home at Sixth and Harrison Streets at 12:30 o'clock from liver trouble, after a several week's illness. An operation was performed on him about a week ago, but the relief was only temporary.

The deceased was born in Henderson in 1826, and was city marshal of that place for several years. He was married over fifty years ago, and his faithful wife survives him, together with two children, Mesdames Samuel Plumb and Joe Bishop. He had been a resident of Paducah for the last twenty-five years and there was not a more respected man in the county. He was a Christian gentleman of many excellent qualities, and his death removes one of Paducah's most public spirited citizens.

MR. J. W. CHAMPION.
Mr. J. W. Champion, aged 65, died Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, after an illness of three years of cancer of the face. He had been a patient sufferer and was able to get up until a few weeks ago. For several years he had kept a boarding house on Court Street near Third, and was a man who was quiet and unassuming and was liked by all who knew him. He was born in Stewart county, Tenn., and for twenty years was in business carrying the river from Linton, Trigg county. He leaves a wife and two sons, Messrs. Law and Harry Champion, and two daughters and a sister, one brother in Stewart county and a brother and sister near Paducah, Graves county. The remains were this morning taken to the city for burial.

PLANS ACCEPTED.
The plans for the new Masonic Odd Fellows' building, drawn by Architect Brinton B. Davis, have been accepted and the bids for the contract work advertised for. The bids will be opened about July 5 and the building will be commenced just as soon as the old building has been torn down and the material for the new building is conveyed to the site. This will be in about 10 days after the bids have been opened.

WORK ON THE NEW MASONIC ODD FELLOWS BUILDING BEGUN TO BEGIN.
The plans for the new Masonic Odd Fellows' building, drawn by Architect Brinton B. Davis, have been accepted and the bids for the contract work advertised for. The bids will be opened about July 5 and the building will be commenced just as soon as the old building has been torn down and the material for the new building is conveyed to the site. This will be in about 10 days after the bids have been opened.

KICKED TO DEATH.
Lexington, June 25.—C. G. Richie, well known trainer, was kicked to death by a horse, Crap-Shooter, to-day.

D PARENTS.
June 25.—Tom Underwood, a young man, Ky., verified the reports of Locksmiths, etc., by the residence of Howard H. S. remedy.

GOV. NASH RENOMINATED.
Chicago, June 25.—Warren Stoner, son of a prominent Kentuckian, is under arrest here charged with attempting a gigantic swindle at the race track.

NO INDICTMENTS AT HOPKINSVILLE.
Hopkinsville, June 25.—The grand jury has not returned any indictments against men charged with gambling at the asylum. It may reconsider action.

RENOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.
Columbus, O., June 25.—Senator Hanna is chairman of the Republican state convention. Gov. Nash was renominated by acclamation. The remainder of the tickets will probably consist of renominations.

EXTREME HEAT IN KENTUCKY.
Louisville, June 25.—Extreme heat prevails all over Kentucky. Thomas Brennan, a prominent Lexington politician, was killed by a sunstroke at Beattyville. A farm hand in Leslie county was fatally stricken.

WE WILL FORFEIT $100

TO BE GIVEN TO ANY CHARITABLE INSTITUTION IN THE CITY IF THERE BE A SINGLE GARMENT IN OUR STOCK WHICH HAS BEEN MARKED UP BEYOND ITS ORIGINAL PRICE.

WE KNOW OTHER HOUSES HAVE MARKED UP THEIR ORIGINAL SELLING PRICES.

IN ORDER TO GIVE SEEMINGLY LARGE REDUCTIONS.

IN OUR REDUCTION SALES
S AT ALL
Other Times
WE ARE STRAIGHT
STRICTLY SO,
Always So.

Beginning Now and Continuing Until All Are Sold, We Will Give

25 Per Cent. 1-4 OFF ON ALL OUR
MEN'S and BOYS' SPRING WEIGHT SUITS.

HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY—GRASP IT.
CUT PRICES STRICTLY CASH.

ONE BOYS' SHIRT FORMER 50c Go Now For
LOT PURITAN WAISTS PRICES and 75c 25 Cents.

New Shipment of
..NEGLIGEE SHIRTS..
JUST IN
Swell Styles.
Come See Them...

to his old home in Stewart county on the Buttorf, for burial.

MISS BESSIE ADAMS.

Miss Bessie Adams, formerly a teacher in the public schools, and a most estimable lady, died at 5 o'clock this morning from consumption at her home, 1019 Harrison street, after an illness of two years. She was the only child of Mrs. E. C. Adams, and her death ends a beautiful Christian life. She returned several months ago from a trip to Georgia and South Carolina, whither she had gone with a hope of improving her health. She leaves no relatives except her mother and several cousins and distant kinsmen. She was a relative of Bishop Morrison, who was in Owensboro, and will arrive this evening to conduct the funeral.

MRS. W. E. PADGETT.
Mrs. W. E. Padgett, wife of the keeper of the county poor farm, died yesterday afternoon at her home on the Mayfield road from a congestion, after a brief illness, aged 59. She was born in Stewart county, Tenn., and was a highly respected lady. She leaves besides her husband, two children, both of whom live in Indian Territory, and are expected to attend the funeral. The remains will be taken to Stewart county as soon as they arrive.

DEATH AT PALESTINE.
Fred Stanley, aged one year, died at Palestine yesterday from dysentery. The burial was at Palestine church.

DIED FROM MENINGITIS.
Willie Pace, aged three months, died last night at the family residence, 1427 South Tenth street, from spinal meningitis, after a brief illness. The burial took place at the Huff graveyard in the county.

FORMERLY OF THIS COUNTY.
Miss Annie Bennett aged about 30 who for years lived in McCracken county died yesterday afternoon at her home in Metropolis from consumption. She leaves quite a number of relatives in this county. The funeral took place today.

POLICEMAN'S MURDER.
Atlanta, Ga., June 25.—Ike Hammond, one of the three negroes arrested for the murder of Policeman E. H. Debray, last Thursday night, confessed today that his brother, Tom Hammond, had murdered the officer. Ike Hammond also confessed that Tom had induced him to send the policeman to the corner of Holderness and Gordon streets on a false alarm, in order that he might shoot him.

CORTEZ CONFESSES.
KILLED SHERIFF MORRIS WHEN HIS BROTHER WAS SHOT.

Dallas, Tex., June 24.—Gregorio Cortez, the Mexican captured at Coal Mines, above Laredo, charged with killing Sheriff Glover and Morris of Karnes county and Henry Schnabel, a member of the posse, about ten days ago, was brought to San Antonio this morning on a special train and lodged in jail. The prisoner admits his identity and acknowledges having killed the three officers named. It has not been determined when he shall be taken to Karnes county. While he is in jail at San Antonio he is considered safe from violence, but it is feared he will be lynched if taken to Karnes county.

ENROUTE HOME.
PINES IS GLAD TO GET BACK.

Mr. E. Sutherland, of Golconda, Ill., who had been two years in the Philippines, was in the city last evening enroute home. He was mustered out the 18th of May, and reached this country only a few days ago. He wore his uniform, but has plenty to remind him of his experience without it. He has enough soldiering, it is said, to last him for the rest of his life.

NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MURDER.
DER ARREST.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was sent up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

All the news is in The Sun.

BAILEY NAMED

APPOINTED TO GAUTEMALA.
Washington, June 24.—Mr. James J. Bailey, of Kentucky, was today appointed Secretary of the Guatemala-Honduras Legation.

SECOY HAYS' SON DEAD.
New Haven, June 24.—Aldebert Stone Hays, oldest son of Secretary Hays, fell 60 feet from the third story of the New Haven House yesterday morning and was killed. It is supposed that he went to the window for air and dozed, falling to the street below. The accident occurred at 2:30 o'clock in the morning. Secretary Hays was prostrated from the shock when notified but is now able to sit up. The young man was formerly United States Consul at Pretoria, South Africa, and had gone to New Haven to attend the Yale commencement. He was a member of the class of '98.

MORE REBELS SURRENDER.
Manila, June 24.—General Callies and seven hundred men formally surrendered today. They all took the oath and wept bitterly while they did so.

GIRL DROWNED.
Bowling Green, June 24.—Edna Rippeel, aged 12, was drowned in a pond on her father's farm.

DRAWN TO DEATH.
Franklin, June 24.—Robert Trail, a young farmer, became entangled in the harness and was dragged to death by a mule.

CORTEZ CONFESSES.
KILLED SHERIFF MORRIS WHEN HIS BROTHER WAS SHOT.

Dallas, Tex., June 24.—Gregorio Cortez, the Mexican captured at Coal Mines, above Laredo, charged with killing Sheriff Glover and Morris of Karnes county and Henry Schnabel, a member of the posse, about ten days ago, was brought to San Antonio this morning on a special train and lodged in jail. The prisoner admits his identity and acknowledges having killed the three officers named. It has not been determined when he shall be taken to Karnes county. While he is in jail at San Antonio he is considered safe from violence, but it is feared he will be lynched if taken to Karnes county.

ENROUTE HOME.
PINES IS GLAD TO GET BACK.

Mr. E. Sutherland, of Golconda, Ill., who had been two years in the Philippines, was in the city last evening enroute home. He was mustered out the 18th of May, and reached this country only a few days ago. He wore his uniform, but has plenty to remind him of his experience without it. He has enough soldiering, it is said, to last him for the rest of his life.

NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MURDER.
DER ARREST.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was sent up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

All the news is in The Sun.

WANTS AN END

St. Petersburg, June 25.—A statesman occupying the highest position here suggests that the advice of General E. A. Hitchcock, secretary of the interior for the United States, should be taken as to the tariff differences between Russia and the United States. He formed a high estimate of Gen. Hitchcock's intelligence and of his rapid grasp of Russian matters while that gentleman was here as diplomatic representative of the United States.

He is confident that Hitchcock will promptly present the sugar question in its true light, and will also fully appreciate the seriousness of the present situation, in view of the relations existing between Russia and the United States.

FORAKER'S TRIBUTE TO MCKINLEY.
"Whatever else we may be, let us be Americans, and worthy of the events with which we are associated. This is a great history-making epoch. Except only Washington and Lincoln, no President has had such opportunities as have fallen to McKinley. No one has escaped him. All have been improved to the honor and glory of the republic. No emergency has arisen that he has not triumphantly met, and no duty of war, peace or diplomacy has been so delicate or so difficult that he has not performed it grandly and successfully. All his achievements are the nation's. His fame is ours. It fills the earth. All races honor and applaud him. The single note of discord is here, at home, among ourselves under our own flag. It misrepresents the people of Ohio. Their verdict in November will so declare."

FORCED MARRIAGE.
L. R. BARNES FILES SUIT AGAINST SARAH BARNES.

L. R. Barnes filed a suit for divorce and the annulling of a deed to certain property in Mechanicsburg to his wife, Sarah F. Barnes, this afternoon.

The plaintiff claims that he was married to his wife, whose former name was Sarah F. Bailey, entirely against his desires and wishes and that the ceremony was performed only by threats on his life if he did not let it progress. He claims that she had made threats to kill him if he did not marry her. He also stated in his petition that by had decided to the defendant a certain lot of land in Mechanicsburg only by threats on his life and that besides the divorce he wants the deed declared null and void.

CASEY CAUGHT.
NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MURDER.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was sent up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

All the news is in The Sun.

JUDGE DYCUS

WELL KNOWN MAN OF MARSHALL COUNTY DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

Judge J. W. Dycus, who suffered a stroke of paralysis May 17th, died yesterday at his home in Benton. It was his third attack, and he never rallied. He is on his way to England and the little island off its coast, which is owned by his uncle, whose heir Mr. Carey is. He registered for Paul, Isle of Man, for the very good reason, he explained, that there is no town or city on the Isle of Man, and also that the family for several years past has spent a great deal of time on the neighboring island, where he was born. "I am going back to Manland to join my uncle, W. L. Drinkwater Carey, who, through the death of my grandfather, has lately come into ownership of the Isle of Man," said Mr. Carey. "The little island is separated from the Isle of Man by a narrow channel. It is in reality a part of Manland. In old times the people were the same and their laws and customs and habits of life were identical on both islands. The Calf of Man is much the smaller. My father would have inherited the island, as he was the eldest son, but he died several years ago. I am my uncle's heir, and some day I may be the owner of the island, which we are pleased to call a kingdom, although it is not quite that." W. L. Drinkwater Carey claims to be more than a descendant of the little island, he has entered upon his little kingdom, which is smaller than the principality of Monaco, not as a tenant of the "Calf of Man," who is Queen Victoria, but he claims absolute ownership. The island has been in the possession of the Careys for many generations, coming into the family through a grant from King Edward, as a reward for meritorious service. There is but one inhabited house on the island, the old seat of the Careys, a substantial stone building that is surrounded by 150 acres of cultivated land. The present owner of the Calf of Man has lived most of his life in the United States. He left home thirty-four years ago, and has been a resident of Chicago almost ever since. He returned only a few weeks ago to enter into possession of his kingdom.

FORCED MARRIAGE.
L. R. BARNES FILES SUIT AGAINST SARAH BARNES.

L. R. Barnes filed a suit for divorce and the annulling of a deed to certain property in Mechanicsburg to his wife, Sarah F. Barnes, this afternoon.

The plaintiff claims that he was married to his wife, whose former name was Sarah F. Bailey, entirely against his desires and wishes and that the ceremony was performed only by threats on his life if he did not let it progress. He claims that she had made threats to kill him if he did not marry her. He also stated in his petition that by had decided to the defendant a certain lot of land in Mechanicsburg only by threats on his life and that besides the divorce he wants the deed declared null and void.

CASEY CAUGHT.
NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MURDER.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was sent up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

All the news is in The Sun.

NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MURDER.
DER ARREST.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was sent up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

A LITTLE KINGDOM.

The Calf of Man Inherited by an American Englishman.

Gerald N. Carey, heir-apparent to the little kingdom of the Calf of Man, who has been at work as an assistant assayer at the Le Roi mine, Roseland, British Columbia, was at the New Markham hotel a day or two ago, stopping in Denver, he said, to make a hurried examination of mining machinery, says the Denver Republican.

He is on his way to England and the little island off its coast, which is owned by his uncle, whose heir Mr. Carey is. He registered for Paul, Isle of Man, for the very good reason, he explained, that there is no town or city on the Isle of Man, and also that the family for several years past has spent a great deal of time on the neighboring island, where he was born. "I am going back to Manland to join my uncle, W. L. Drinkwater Carey, who, through the death of my grandfather, has lately come into ownership of the Isle of Man," said Mr. Carey. "The little island is separated from the Isle of Man by a narrow channel. It is in reality a part of Manland. In old times the people were the same and their laws and customs and habits of life were identical on both islands. The Calf of Man is much the smaller. My father would have inherited the island, as he was the eldest son, but he died several years ago. I am my uncle's heir, and some day I may be the owner of the island, which we are pleased to call a kingdom, although it is not quite that." W. L. Drinkwater Carey claims to be more than a descendant of the little island, he has entered upon his little kingdom, which is smaller than the principality of Monaco, not as a tenant of the "Calf of Man," who is Queen Victoria, but he claims absolute ownership. The island has been in the possession of the Careys for many generations, coming into the family through a grant from King Edward, as a reward for meritorious service. There is but one inhabited house on the island, the old seat of the Careys, a substantial stone building that is surrounded by 150 acres of cultivated land. The present owner of the Calf of Man has lived most of his life in the United States. He left home thirty-four years ago, and has been a resident of Chicago almost ever since. He returned only a few weeks ago to enter into possession of his kingdom.

FORCED MARRIAGE.
L. R. BARNES FILES SUIT AGAINST SARAH BARNES.

L. R. Barnes filed a suit for divorce and the annulling of a deed to certain property in Mechanicsburg to his wife, Sarah F. Barnes, this afternoon.

The plaintiff claims that he was married to his wife, whose former name was Sarah F. Bailey, entirely against his desires and wishes and that the ceremony was performed only by threats on his life if he did not let it progress. He claims that she had made threats to kill him if he did not marry her. He also stated in his petition that by had decided to the defendant a certain lot of land in Mechanicsburg only by threats on his life and that besides the divorce he wants the deed declared null and void.

CASEY CAUGHT.
NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MURDER.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was sent up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

All the news is in The Sun.

HEATH AND DESTRUCTION

The Elkhorn Valley Swept By a Mighty Flood Yesterday Morning Early and

One Hundred Perish—The Loss of Property Will Reach Millions—Thirty Miles Railroad Washed Away—Much Suffering.

On Monday's daily.

OTHER JOHNSTOWN HORROR.
Roanoke, Va., June 24.—This entire section has been visited by a flood the extent of which, in all probability, will nearly equal that of Johnstown, Pa., so far as the loss of property is concerned.

Early Saturday morning, shortly after midnight, a heavy downpour of rain began, accompanied by a severe electric storm, which violently increased in volume and continued for several hours.

This continued all day and night. The water here is evident everywhere, and it is a great pity that the people here, who are in the line of business, try to do so much for the people.

WANTED.—No one to be seen in the line of business, try to do so much for the people.

lay for the flood in the line of business, try to do so much for the people.

Shortly after midnight Saturday night it seemed as if the heavens had opened their flood gates over the town of Vivian, W. Va. Here a passenger train was caught in the flood, and the lives of the frightened passengers were saved only by the use of ropes, which were quickly thrown over in the covey which skirt the railroad yards at Vivian. The passengers were glad to catch the ropes, and willing hands dragged them from the submerged train and over the open barriades to a point of safety.

The flood seems to have extended over a vast area of mountain country, and the hundreds of mountain streams, becoming swollen, only served to swell the Elkhorn river until it overflowed and carried destruction in its wake. Railroad ties and tracks small buildings of all descriptions, trees, telegraph poles, huge boulders and every imaginable movable thing that came within the sweep of this mighty torrent of maddened waters went down the mountainous district in a seething, roaring mass of debris. Dead bodies could be seen floating along the valley by those who had gained a place of safety in the high hills.

The Pocahontas coal field is located in a basin with high mountain ranges on either side, Elkhorn creek flowing through the center of the basin, which ranges from one-fourth to one mile in width. From Ennis, W. Va., to Vivian, W. Va., a distance of ten miles, miners' cabins, coal company commissaries and coke plants line this basin. Elkhorn creek, being fed by numerous small streams coming from the mountain side, rises very rapidly and this water spot came so suddenly that the entire basin between two mountain ranges was flooded.

And before the terror-stricken people realized what was upon them they were carried down by the flood, which swept everything in its path.

The little town of Keystone, with a population of about 2,000, seems the greatest sufferer, practically the entire town being washed away.

The latest reports today state that the loss of life amounting to 200 or more, first reported is exaggerated. A train from the stricken valley this morning reports that there were probably 100 perished, and the property loss will reach millions. It will be days before the exact loss of life will be known. There are thirty miles of railroad track swept away, and the greatest consternation reigns.

Later reports from the stricken region state that the number of deaths will go to two hundred, and possibly four hundred.

OVER AN EMBANKMENT.
TRAIN FELL TWENTY-FIVE FEET AND TWO PERSONS ARE DEAD, THREE FATALLY INJURED AND FORTY OTHERS HURT.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 25.—By the wrecking of train No. 3, northbound, on the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad, which ran into an open switch at Monaca, twenty-six miles from this city, and went over an embankment twenty-five feet high, two persons are dead and three fatally injured and forty others more or less hurt.

THE DEAD.
William J. Cunningham, fireman.
Lowry Black, baggage master.

THE INJURED.
Mrs. Lola B. Perkins, Cleveland, abdomen punctured by a splinter.
Mrs. James Lee, Washington, Pa., arm broken and internal injuries.
Mrs. Jefferson Saxe, Denver, Pa., badly cut and bruised.

A NEWSY LETTER FROM MISSOURI.
Stanley, Pemiscot county, Missouri, June 25.—Health is very good in this community this year and the crops are looking fine. Several people are laying by their corn. They will be done with the crops by the fourth of July.

James Hankins' little boy was thrown from a mule the other day and had one of his arms broken. Dr. Tate was attending the injury and the little fellow is getting along very well. The mule was frightened by a passing bicyclist.

Mr. Woods is improving. He has had a time this spring with sickness in his family. They have, all, had the smallpox. He was the last to have it, but is now able to be out.

Mr. Williams has been hunting cotton hands to help sow cotton. Hands are scarce.

Church every Sunday and Sunday school at Council and Dry Bryan also.

Mr. Hines has returned from Paducah, where he went to get his father. He found him sick, however, and he will not be in condition to be moved yet a while. He is agent for the Paducah Sun at this place, the best paper for the money in the world.

"LAST GABRIEL OF MISSOURI."
PLANS ACCEPTED
WORK ON THE NEW MASONIC-ODD FELLOWS BUILDING SOON TO BEGIN.

The plans for the Masonic and Odd Fellows' building, drawn by Architect Brinton B. Davis, have been accepted and the bids for the contract work advertised for. The bids will be opened about July 6 and the building will be commenced just as soon as the old building has been torn down and the material for the new building is conveyed to the site. This will be in about 15 days after the bids have been opened.

KICKED TO DEATH.
Lexington, June 25.—C. G. Richie, well known trainer, was kicked to death by a horse, Crap-Shooter, to

TO PARENTS.
June 25.—Tom Underwood, a young man, who was verified by the local authorities, was by the residence of Howard, H. S. Ramsey.

MANY DEATHS

Sudden Demise of County Judge Tully Shocks Many People in the City.

SUMMONS UNEXPECTED

Capt. R. G. Rouse, for a Quarter of a Century Agent for the St. Bernard Coal Co., Succumbs After a Hard Fight.

OTHER DEATHS IN AND ABOUT PADUCAH

From Monday's daily.

JUDGE J. C. TULLY.

The sudden and unexpected death of County Judge J. C. Tully yesterday morning about five o'clock at his residence on West Jefferson street occasioned widespread regret throughout the city. It came as a great shock to his hundreds of friends, many of whom had seen him only the day before, and did not know that he was seriously ill.

Judge Tully had been in failing health for several months, and night before last, on account of the heat, occupied a different room from the one in which he generally slept. About 4:00 he got up and put out the lamp, got a drink of water and after going out on the porch to get a breath of fresh air, went to bed in another room. In a short time his wife heard him groan, and upon going to him found him unconscious and in a dying condition. He was never conscious and passed away shortly after Dr. C. H. Brothers, and shortly before Dr. Murrel, the family physician, arrived.

Judge Tully was born in New York City August 13th, 1858. He had been a resident of Paducah since 1887, formerly being pastor of the Christian Church in St. Louis. He was at different times since his residence here in the real estate and other businesses, and served one term as magistrate, being elected county judge four years ago. He was ordained a minister in 1861, and married Miss Loretta Moore, of Illinois, the following year.

He was defeated for the Democratic nomination for county judge last spring by Hon. R. T. Lightfoot, but was one of the most prominent and popular men in the county. His health had been failing for several months past, and he only returned from a trip to Milwaukee and other places a week ago. Death is attributed to heart disease.

The deceased leaves a wife and four children, Mrs. Maria Truscott, of Remus, Okla., Messrs. Wynne and Owen Tully, and Mrs. T. A. Lyle, of the city. A daughter, Miss Kate, died only a few weeks ago. He also leaves a brother, Mr. Thomas De Witt Tully, in Brooklyn, N. Y. His death is the third to occur in the family in one year.

Judge Tully had been in the real estate business most of his life. He often preached at the Christian Church here a few years ago, although at that time he had retired from the ministry. He resigned the pastorate of his church in St. Louis in January, 1887, and since that time had resided in Paducah.

He was an Odd Fellow, Mason, and a Christian gentleman of sterling worth.

The funeral of the late County Judge J. C. Tully will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, services at the house by Rev. Pinkerton, burial at Oak Grove under the auspices of the Odd Fellows.

The board of magistrates meets tomorrow morning to take appropriate action at the death of Judge Tully.

CAPT. R. G. ROUSE.
Capt. Robert G. Rouse, for many years agent for the St. Bernard Coal Company here, died yesterday morning at his home at Sixth and Harrison Streets at 12:30 o'clock from liver trouble, after a several week's illness. An operation was performed on him about a week ago, but the relief was only temporary.

The deceased was born in Henderson in 1836, and was city marshal of that place for several years. He was married over fifty years ago, and his faithful wife survives him, together with two children, Mesdames Samuel Plumb and Joe Bishop. He had been a resident of Paducah for the last twenty-five years and there was not a more respected man in the county. He was a Christian gentleman of many excellent qualities, and his death removes one of Paducah's most public spirited citizens.

MR. J. W. CHAMPION.
Mr. J. W. Champion, aged 65, died Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, after an illness of three years of cancer of the face. He had been a patient sufferer and was able to get out until a few weeks ago. For several years he had kept a boarding house on Court Street near Third, and was a man who was quiet and unassuming and was liked by all who knew him. He was born in Stewart county, Tenn., and for twenty years was in business across the river from Linton, Trigg county. He leaves a wife and two sons, Messrs. Lam and Harry Champion, and two daughters and a sister, one brother in Stewart county and a brother and sister near Paducah, Craves county. The remains were this morning taken to his old home in Stewart county on the Buttorf, for burial.

MISS BESSIE ADAMS.
Miss Bessie Adams, formerly a teacher in the public schools, and a most estimable lady, died at 5 o'clock this morning from consumption at her home, 1019 Harrison street, after an illness of two years. She was the only child of Mrs. E. C. Adams, and her and death ends a beautiful Christian life. She returned several months ago from a trip to Georgia and South Carolina, whither she had gone with a hope of improving her health. She leaves no relatives except her mother and several cousins and distant kin.

She was a relative of Bishop Morrison, who was in Owensboro, and will arrive this evening to conduct the funeral.

MRS. W. B. PADGETT.
Mrs. W. B. Padgett, wife of the keeper of the county poor farm, died yesterday afternoon at her home on the Mayfield road from a congestion, after a brief illness, aged 59. She was born in Stewart county, Tenn., and was a highly respected lady. She leaves beside her husband, two children, both of whom live in Indian Territory, and are expected to attend the funeral. The remains will be taken to Stewart county as soon as they arrive.

DEATH AT PALESTINE.
Fred Stanley, aged one year, died at Palestine yesterday from dysentery. The burial was at Palestine church.

DIED FROM MENINGITIS.
Willie Pace, aged three months, died last night at the family residence, 1427 South Tenth street, from spinal meningitis, after a brief illness. The burial took place at the Huff graveyard in the county.

FORMERLY OF THIS COUNTY.
Miss Annie Bennett aged about 30 who for years lived in McCracken county died yesterday afternoon at her home in Metropolis from consumption. She leaves quite a number of relatives in this county. The funeral took place today.

POLICEMAN'S MURDER.
Atlanta, Ga., June 26.—Like Hammond, one of the three negroes arrested for the murder of Policeman E. H. Debray, last Thursday night, confessed today that his brother, Tom Hammond, had murdered the officer. Hammond also confessed that Tom had induced him to send the policeman to the corner of Holderness and Gordon streets on a false alarm, in order that he might shoot him.

PHILIP MARCHINGTON OF GEORGIA.
Philip Marchington of Georgia claims to be the oldest letter carrier in the country. He began work for the Boston postoffice in September, 1856, and since then has walked more than 100,000 miles in the line of his duty.

AN EXCEPTIONAL LAKE.
An interesting exploration of Lake Tanganyika and the country north of it, finished recently, revealed the fact that while certain sea mollusks are found in this lake, it is the only one of all the large African lakes in which such phenomena are observed. This lake is only a short distance, some eighty miles, from the great Congo basin, much of which, without doubt, was once covered by the sea.

OLD-LETTER CARRIER IN COUNTRY.
Philip Marchington of Georgia claims to be the oldest letter carrier in the country. He began work for the Boston postoffice in September, 1856, and since then has walked more than 100,000 miles in the line of his duty.

ALL THE NEWS IS IN THE SUN.

WE WILL FORFEIT $100

TO BE GIVEN TO ANY CHARITABLE INSTITUTION IN THE CITY IF THERE BE A SINGLE GARMENT IN OUR STOCK WHICH HAS BEEN MARKED UP BEYOND ITS ORIGINAL PRICE.

WE KNOW OTHER HOUSES HAVE MARKED UP THEIR ORIGINAL SELLING PRICES.

IN ORDER TO GIVE SEEMINGLY LARGE REDUCTIONS.

IN OUR REDUCTION SALES
S AT ALL
Other Times
WE ARE STRAIGHT
STRICTLY SO,
Always So.

Beginning Now and Continuing Until All Are Sold, We Will Give

25 Per Cent. 1-4 OFF ON ALL OUR
MEN'S and BOYS' SPRING WEIGHT SUITS.

HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY--GRASP IT.
CUT PRICES STRICTLY CASH.

ONE BOYS' SHIRT FORMER 50c Go Now For
LOT PURITAN WAISTS PRICES and 75c 25 Cents.

New Shipment of
..NEGLIGEE SHIRTS..
JUST IN
Swell Styles.
Come See Them....

BAILEY NAMED

APPOINTED TO GAUTEMALA.
Washington, June 24.—Mr. James J. Bailey, of Kentucky, was today appointed Secretary of the Guatemala-Honduras Legation.

SECOY. HAYS' SON DEAD.
New Haven, June 24.—Aldebert Stone Hays, oldest son of Secretary Hays, fell 60 feet from the third story of the New Haven House yesterday morning and was killed. It is supposed that he went to the window for air and dozed, falling to the street below. The accident occurred at 2:30 o'clock in the morning. Secretary Hays was prostrated from the shock when notified but is now able to sit up. The young man was formerly United States Consul at Pretoria, South Africa, and had gone to New Haven to attend the Yale commencement. He was a member of the class of '98.

MORE REBELS SURRENDER.
Manila, June 24.—General Callies and seven hundred men formally surrendered today. They all took the oath and wept bitterly while they did so.

GIRL DROWNED.
Bowling Green, June 24.—Edna Russell, aged 12, was drowned in a pond on her father's farm.

DRAWN TO DEATH.
Franklin, June 24.—Robert Trail, a young farmer, became entangled in the harness and was dragged to death by a mule.

CORTEZ CONFESSES.
Dallas, Tex., June 24.—Gregorio Cortez, the Mexican captured at Coal Mines, above Laredo, charged with killing Sheriff Glover and Morris of Karnes county and Henry Schnabel, a member of the posse, about ten days ago, was brought to San Antonio this morning on a special train and lodged in jail. The prisoner admits his identity and acknowledges having killed the three officers named. It has not been determined when he shall be taken to Karnes county. While he is in jail at San Antonio he is considered safe from violence, but it is feared he will be lynched if taken to Karnes county.

KILLED SHERIFF MORRIS WHEN HIS BROTHER WAS SHOT.
Dallas, Tex., June 24.—Gregorio Cortez, the Mexican captured at Coal Mines, above Laredo, charged with killing Sheriff Glover and Morris of Karnes county and Henry Schnabel, a member of the posse, about ten days ago, was brought to San Antonio this morning on a special train and lodged in jail. The prisoner admits his identity and acknowledges having killed the three officers named. It has not been determined when he shall be taken to Karnes county. While he is in jail at San Antonio he is considered safe from violence, but it is feared he will be lynched if taken to Karnes county.

ENROUTE HOME.
A SOLDIER FROM THE PHILIPPINES IS GLAD TO GET BACK.

Mr. E. Sutherland, of Golconda, Ill., who had been two years in the Philippines, was in the city last evening enroute home. He was mustered out the 18th of May, and reached this country only a few days ago. He wore his uniform, but has plenty to remind him of his experience without it. He has enough collecting, if his statements are to be credited.

WANTS AN END

St. Petersburg, June 25.—A statesman occupying the highest position here suggests that the advice of General E. A. Hitchcock, secretary of the interior for the United States, should be taken as to the tariff differences between Russia and the United States. He formed a high estimate of Gen. Hitchcock's intelligence and of his rapid grasp of Russian matters while that gentleman was here as diplomatic representative of the United States.

He is confident that Hitchcock will promptly present the sugar question in its true light, and will also fully appreciate the seriousness of the present situation, in view of the relations existing between Russia and the United States.

FORAKER'S TRIBUTE TO MCKINLEY.
"Whatever else we may be, let us be Americans, and worthy of the events with which we are associated. This is a great history-making epoch. Except only Washington and Lincoln, no President has had such opportunities as have fallen to McKinley. No one has escaped him. All have been improved to the honor and glory of the republic. No emergency has arisen that he has not triumphantly met, and no duty of war, peace or diplomacy has been so delicate or so difficult that he has not performed it grandly and successfully. All his achievements are the nation's. His fame is ours. It fills the earth. All races honor and applaud him. The single note of discord is here, at home, among ourselves under our own flag. It misrepresents the American people. It misrepresents the people of Ohio. Their verdict in November will so declare."

NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MALICIOUS CUTTING UNDER ARREST.
John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was set up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

ALL THE NEWS IS IN THE SUN.

JUDGE DYCUS

WELL KNOWN MAN OF MARSHALL COUNTY DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

Judge J. W. Dycus, who suffered a stroke of paralysis May 17th, died yesterday at his home in Benton. It was his third attack, and he never rallied. The deceased was 71 years old and had served the people as county clerk, judge and attorney, and represented the district in the legislature. He was president of the Bank of Benton from its organization until a few months ago, and was a good Christian man who had done much good, especially in the cause of temperance. One brother, Rev. Jack Dycus, died a short time ago at Palma. The first wife of Judge Dycus died many years ago, leaving one child, Mr. W. G. Dycus. No funeral arrangements have been made.

FORCED MARRIAGE.
L. R. BARNES FILES SUIT AGAINST SARAH BARNES.

L. R. Barnes filed a suit for divorce and the annulling of a deed to certain property in Mechanicsburg to his wife, Sarah F. Barnes, this afternoon.

The plaintiff claims that he was married to his wife, whose former name was Sarah F. Bailey, entirely against his desires and wishes, and that the ceremony was performed only by threats on his life if he did not let it progress. He claims that she had made threats to kill him if he did not marry her. He also stated in his petition that he had deeded to the defendant a certain lot of land in Mechanicsburg only by threats on his life and that besides the divorce he wants the deed declared null and void.

CASEY CAUGHT.
NEGRO WANTED HERE FOR MALICIOUS CUTTING UNDER ARREST.

John Casey, colored, who is wanted here for maliciously cutting a negro woman on South Third street about two weeks ago, was arrested last night in Owensboro. It is the same fight as a result of which Becky Price cut Annie Cotton.

The warrant was set up this morning by Marshal Collins and the prisoner will be brought to Paducah by Owensboro officers tomorrow some time.

ALL THE NEWS IS IN THE SUN.

AN EXCEPTIONAL LAKE.
An interesting exploration of Lake Tanganyika and the country north of it, finished recently, revealed the fact that while certain sea mollusks are found in this lake, it is the only one of all the large African lakes in which such phenomena are observed. This lake is only a short distance, some eighty miles, from the great Congo basin, much of which, without doubt, was once covered by the sea.

OLD-LETTER CARRIER IN COUNTRY.
Philip Marchington of Georgia claims to be the oldest letter carrier in the country. He began work for the Boston postoffice in September, 1856, and since then has walked more than 100,000 miles in the line of his duty.

ALL THE NEWS IS IN THE SUN.